

Le Web: le six janvier

In this activity you will visit several websites but generally will only spend five minutes on each one. Use the questions below to guide your exploration. Answers in English and in note format are fine for sections A – E. Please use complete sentences for F & G. We will discuss answers together tomorrow.

Nom:

Date:

A. Go to: <http://fr.greetings.yahoo.com/>

What is the date today?
What is the name for the holiday today?
Browse the cards for this holiday. What pictures do you see?
What words do you see?
There is a word that is repeated on the last three cards, what is it?

B. Go to: <http://www2.ac-toulouse.fr/eco-belbeze-union/galette1.htm>

Where are these students? (Hint: Check the URL)
What are they eating?
What do you know about "les fèves" so far? What do they look like? What are they made of?

C. Go to: <http://www.momes.net/dictionnaire/minidossiers/epiphanie.html>

When and where (country) is it traditional to have a galette ?
---	--

D. Go to: <http://www.siteparc.fr/bonneau/>

Where (country/city) is this store?
What kind of store is it?
"Fête" is the word for holiday. Click "A chaque fête sa pâtisserie" What would the customer buy for this holiday? Try and find at least two ingredients.

? Yes, you may click on the webcam link, but only once and then move on.

E. Go to: <http://cyberpresse.crdp-poitiers.cndp.fr/num4/galette.htm>

Aurèlie wrote a nice summary of this tradition. Review your notes so far and then pick out the main ideas from her paragraph.

F. Go to:

<http://www.momes.net/dictionnaire/e/epiphanie/emballages.html>

<http://www.momes.net/dictionnaire/e/epiphanie/emballages2.html>

What would you expect to find in these packages? How would you explain these packages to someone who didn't know about l'Épiphanie and la galette du roi? Choose three decorations (pictures or expressions) and explain what they are and how they relate to the holiday.
